Peruvian Food and Culture: From the Inkas to World Class Haute Cuisine

Arizona State University

May – June 2019

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS (subject to change)

Lima | 9 days, 10 nights
- Tour Huaca Pucllana, archaeological center of the Lima (c. AD 100-700) and Ychsma (c. AD 900-1400) cultures
- Tour of Mercado de Surquillo, a bustling food market
- SkyKitchen Peruvian Cooking Class
- Visit Museo Larco, pre-Columbian Peruvian history museum
- Scavenger hunt activity at Mercado de los Productores
- Tour Pachacamac archaeological complex, a key religious and administrative center
- Visit Wong Balta supermarket
- Day trip to Pucusana fishing village

Paracas | 3 days, 2 nights
- Visit Museo de Sitio Julio C. Tello, archaeological museum featuring the Paracas culture (c. 900 BC-AD 400)
- Meet local restaurant owner and kitchen tour
- Day trip to Ica and the Tacama Vineyard and Pisco Distillery, with Marinera and Caballo de Paso show included
- Boat tour of Islas Ballestas National Reserve

Cusco | 5 days, 5 nights
- Walking city tour of Qorikancha and the Cusco Cathedral
- Choco Museo tour and chocolate making workshop
- Day trip to Lake Piuray, includes standup paddle boarding and kayaking and picnic lunch with local agriculturalists

Sacred Valley | 2 days, 2 nights
- Visit to Moray, a beautiful Inka archaeological site of circular agricultural terraces thought to have been a botanical laboratory and astronomical observatory
- Visit to Maras, a colonial village where one of the world’s finest salts is extracted by the local community
- Visit to the community of Misminay and participate in daily community activities such as plowing or harvesting crops, spinning, dyeing and weaving locally produced wool, and ceremonies to honor mother earth
- Tour of Ollantaytambo archaeological site
- Tour a local farm, including visit to cañazo distillery and coffee roasting facility and participate in the preparation of a traditional Pachamanca for lunch

Machu Picchu | 1 day, 2 nights
- Travel via Vista Dome train from Ollantaytambo to Aguas Calientes
- Visit Machu Picchu
- Lodging at Aguas Calientes at base of Machu Picchu