Global Studies & Study Abroad

Getting Started with Studying Abroad

- Review “Getting Started” information at https://studyabroad.asu.edu
- Attend a Study Abroad 101 info session or view online at https://studyabroad.asu.edu/?go=SAO101
- Enroll in SGS 394 Cross-Cultural Awareness—1 cr. seminar
- Search for study abroad programs on the Study Abroad Office website
- Plan ahead! Meet with your Internship Coordinator, Gisela Grant, to discuss your SGS Global Experience requirement
- Meet with your SPGS academic advisor to learn what degree requirements you need to fulfill & how studying abroad will help
- Meet with an SAO International Coordinator to discuss program-specific information and application processes
- Apply by MARCH 1 for fall semester, academic year, and most summer programs or SEPTEMBER 25 for spring programs

When/What to Study Abroad?

- Sophomore and Junior years are optimal
- Plan for your experience at least one year in advance, solidifying your SGS Global Experience requirements with Ms. Grant
- SGS major specific or elective courses, including SGS 484

Financing your program:

Studying abroad is an investment in your future. Like any other type of investment, it requires careful planning and management.

Detailed program cost information (both direct program costs and estimated expenses) is available for ASU study abroad programs. On the specific webpage for your selected program, visit the ‘Cost Sheets’ section to view your term cost sheet.

Financing Workshops:

The Study Abroad Office offers workshops for students planning to go abroad. Sessions cover:

- Applying ASU financial aid
- Utilizing community-based funding
- Program fees and deadlines
- Tips for successful scholarship applications
- Finding study abroad specific scholarship options

For more information:

Visit the Study Abroad Office website for additional tips on planning how to finance your study abroad program. The Financing Your Study Abroad Program section of our website will outline various scholarship/grant opportunities, workshop dates/times, and more.
