

Overview of Costs by Program Type

Financial Factor	Partnership Programs	Exchange Programs	Global Intensive Experience	Faculty-Directed Programs
Application Fee (per program)	$50 non-refundable application fee	$50 non-refundable application fee	$50 non-refundable application fee	$50 non-refundable application fee
ASU Tuition	Tuition for Study Abroad courses is included in program fee  Summer only: In addition to the program fee, regular ASU tuition is charged for any courses outside of the Study Abroad Program (payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates).	Regular ASU tuition for the number of credits completed during the term  Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates	Global Intensive Experience courses are included in your semester tuition, provided you are enrolled in at least 7+ credit hours for Resident and 12+ for Non-Resident and International students and your participation does not result in a course overload (over 18 credit hours).	Tuition for Study Abroad courses is included in program fee  Regular ASU tuition is charged for any courses outside of the Study Abroad Program (payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates)
ASU Fees	Technology Fee and Financial Aid Trust Fee; special programs fees (ex: Barrett)  Participants who take ASU courses outside of the study abroad courses will be charged ALL mandatory registration fees.	Technology Fee and Financial Aid Trust Fee; special programs fees (ex: Barrett)  Participants who take ASU courses outside of the study abroad courses will be charged ALL mandatory registration fees.	Technology Fee and Financial Aid Trust Fee; special programs fees (ex: Barrett)	Technology Fee and Financial Aid Trust Fee; special programs fees (ex: Barrett)  Participants who take ASU courses outside of the study abroad courses will be charged ALL mandatory registration fees.
SAO Administrative Fee	None	$400 non-refundable fee  Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates	None	None
International Medical Insurance	Included in program fee	Varies by program dates: estimate $200 per semester and $400 per academic year  Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates	Included in program fee	Included in program fee
Program Fee	Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates; option to split payment into two (semester programs) or four (yearlong programs) equal parts is available	None	Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates; option to split payment into two equal parts is available	Payable through ASU Student Account by posted due dates; option to split payment into two equal parts is available

Financial Factor	Partnership Programs	Exchange Programs	Global Intensive Experience	Faculty-Directed Programs
ASU Scholarships	Most ASU scholarships should apply to your study abroad program fee (excluding summer). Check with the Scholarship Office about your specific scholarship. Staff/Faculty tuition waivers are excluded.	All scholarship packages should generally be applicable to term(s) on exchange programs, as you pay ASU tuition directly (semester/year exchange only, does NOT apply to summer). ASU Tuition Waiver may be applied on any exchange program.	All scholarship packages should generally be applicable to Global Intensive Experience programs, but keep in mind that scholarship amounts will not increase though your semester cost of attendance will increase.	Most ASU scholarships do not provide additional monies for summer terms. Contact the Scholarships Office to confirm details based on your specific award package. Staff/Faculty tuition waivers are excluded.
Other Scholarships	Many scholarships and grants are available from the Study Abroad Office, ASU departments and colleges, program providers, and external organizations. These awards may be offered for both study abroad and exchange programs.
Financial Aid Amounts	Students eligible for financial aid at ASU may get their aid packages reassessed, allowing for the possibility of being awarded additional aid (usually Private &amp; Parent PLUS loans) if the total cost of attendance to study abroad is higher than the cost of taking classes at ASU. This process is automated for Faculty-Directed and Global Intensive Experience programs. For partnership and exchange program participants: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. After confirming participation, print a Cost Sheet for your program and term, available on the Study Abroad Office website.</li> <li>2. Sign your section, and then take it to the Study Abroad Office for a signature from an International Coordinator.</li> <li>3. Submit the signed cost sheet to Financial Aid and Scholarship Services for financial aid eligibility reassessment.</li> </ol>
Using Financial Aid Towards Direct Program Costs	Since you pay your Study Abroad Program Fee through your ASU student account, you may apply your financial aid as you normally would.	Since you pay your normal ASU tuition/fees, you may apply your financial aid the same way you normally would.	Since you pay your Study Abroad Program Fee through your ASU student account, you may apply your financial aid as you normally would.	Since you pay your Study Abroad Program Fee through your ASU student account, you may apply your financial aid as you normally would.
Costs Beyond Program Fee or Tuition	Carefully assess your expenses beyond the program fee, including airfare, passport, visa, meals, personal expenses, and any other listed items. The Study Abroad Program Cost Sheet can help you estimate these expenses.	Generally you will have to cover all other educational and living expenses (textbooks, housing, meals, airfare, passport, visa, etc.). The Study Abroad Program Cost Sheet can help you determine your additional estimated expenses.	Carefully assess your expenses beyond the program fee, including airfare, passport, visa, meals, personal expenses, and any other listed items. The Study Abroad Program Cost Sheet can help you estimate these expenses.	Carefully assess your expenses beyond the program fee, including airfare, passport, visa, meals, personal expenses, and any other listed items. The Study Abroad Program Cost Sheet can help you estimate these expenses.
Smaller Costs to Factor Into Your Budget	Consider day-to-day costs involved in studying abroad, including luggage fees, communication (cell phones, data plans, etc.), local transportation, souvenirs, general spending money (toiletries, snacks, laundry, etc.), and other personal expenses.			