Notice of withdrawal from an Exchange program must be submitted in writing to the ASU Study Abroad Office (SAO) by email, mail, or in person. The date of withdrawal is the regular business day during which your written withdrawal statement is received in the SAO.

SAO is not able to guarantee, and does NOT guarantee, that any portion of the fees owed to or submitted to SAO by you will be removed or refunded if you withdraw from the program for any reason. ASU pays many sub-contractors for the educational services provided to participants in ASU Exchange programs and these sub-contractors have varying payment and refund policies. In many cases, SAO is required to make large payments (or encumber significant funds) on behalf of a participant well in advance of the program start date, before SAO has charged the participant’s ASU student account, and/or before the participant has submitted payment. If SAO has already paid or encumbered funds on your behalf at the time of your withdrawal, you are obligated to pay the amount encumbered or paid by SAO unless and until the third party reimburses SAO or releases SAO from the financial obligation. The later you withdraw from an Exchange program, the higher your financial obligation is likely to be.

All Exchange program participants are required to pay a $50 Application Fee, a $400 SAO Administrative Fee, an International Travel Service Fee, and a Carbon Offset Fee as a condition of participation.

Due to the many variables involved, fees owed to SAO are calculated on a case-by-case basis for withdrawn participants, based on the following:

1. The $50 Application Fee is NON-REFUNDABLE.
   a. If an applicant withdraws from an Exchange program any time after signing the Acknowledgment of Application, the applicant will be responsible for the non-refundable $50 Application Fee.
   b. If SAO cancels the program or the applicant is denied acceptance for participation in the applicant’s selected program, SAO may remove or refund the full Application Fee charge at SAO’s sole discretion; the student may not defer the Application Fee to a different or future program.

2. The $400 Administrative Fee, charged to participants who have confirmed participation in an Exchange program, is NON-REFUNDABLE.
   a. If an applicant withdraws from an Exchange program after being accepted to participate but before confirming his/her participation, the applicant will not be responsible for paying the $400 SAO Administrative Fee.
   b. If an applicant withdraws from an Exchange program any time after confirming his/her participation, the applicant will be responsible for the $400 SAO Administrative Fee.
   c. If SAO cancels the program or the applicant is denied acceptance by the Exchange program host institution, SAO may remove or refund the full SAO Administrative Fee charge at SAO’s sole discretion; the student may not defer the SAO Administrative Fee to a different or future program.
3. The International Travel Service Fee, which includes the cost of mandatory international medical insurance coverage as well as other travel risk management services provided by SAO, may be refundable based on the timing of withdrawal.
   a. If an applicant withdraws from an Exchange program after confirming his/her participation but before the program begins, SAO will remove or refund the full International Travel Service Fee charged to the participant.
   b. If a participant withdraws from an Exchange program after the program officially begins, SAO may reduce the International Travel Service Fee charged to or owed by the participant, at SAO’s sole discretion, based on the number of days between the published Exchange program start date and the date of the participant’s withdrawal.
   c. The later a student withdraws, the less likely it is that SAO will be able to remove or refund any portion of the International Travel Service Fee.

4. The Carbon Offset Fee, which is added to all ASU-sponsored air travel and will help mitigate ASU’s carbon emissions, may be refundable based on the timing of withdrawal.
   a. If an applicant withdraws from an Exchange program any time before the program officially begins, SAO will remove or refund the full Carbon Offset Fee.
   b. If a participant withdraws from an Exchange program after the program officially begins, the participant is responsible for the full Carbon Offset Fee.

5. Exchange program participants pay tuition directly to ASU, and are therefore subject to the ASU tuition refund policy, available online at http://students.asu.edu/tuitionrefundpolicy.
   a. Any request for a tuition refund must be submitted directly to the ASU Tuition Payment Office in accordance with established ASU policies.

6. SAO strongly advises that Exchange program participants purchase fully refundable airline tickets and/or trip cancellation insurance to safeguard against losses or penalties should the participant withdraw for any reason (including failure to obtain a visa or any other personal reason), or should a program be canceled or its dates changed. SAO assumes no responsibility for such losses or penalties.

7. In limited circumstances, participants may submit a Request for Documented Medical/Compassionate Withdrawal from a Study Abroad Program, subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the SAO Medical/Compassionate Withdrawal Policy.

8. After withdrawing from the Exchange program, it is the participant’s responsibility to withdraw from the study abroad placeholder course (SAO 196/596) to avoid any tuition charges or failing grade(s) being issued, subject to the terms of the ASU course withdrawal policy.

9. If a participant receives financial aid and withdraws from an Exchange program, the participant must contact the Student Financial Aid Office immediately, as withdrawal may affect the participant’s financial aid package.
